

Tuesday April 20

Read

❖ Romans 15:14

Study

1. What two qualifications made the Roman Christians competent to instruct one another?

2. The Roman Christians were “full of goodness”. Read Matthew 7:3-5. How do Jesus’ words help you understand, “full of goodness”?

3. The Roman Christians were “filled with knowledge”. According to 2 Timothy 3:16 what knowledge is essential in order to admonish another?

Reflect

It may be that none of us can say that we are “full of goodness.” But the truth remains that if you are deliberately violating the Word of God you really can’t effectively admonish another. You must first deal with the sin in your own life. Do it today, reach out for help if needed, but don’t put it off any longer. Deal with the sin in your own heart by repenting, confessing and getting help to walk in the way of righteousness.

Pray

- ❖ “Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.” (Psalm 51:2)

For our church:

- ❖ Give thanks to God for our visioning events this past month. Thank God for the joy we experienced in being together and dreaming about what God has in store for us as a church. Pray that we continue to depend on God to grant us a vision for ministry in Wyoming and beyond. Pray that God’s promise would be realized in us, “In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.” (Acts 2:17,18)